Award-winning Toronto musician Teresa Hart's 4th CD Sky + Air follows up on 2014's breakthrough CD I Want Your Fire.

'What Are You Waiting For,' 'You Make Me Want To Party' and 'Hypnotize' all come from finding a new lease on life with new friends and experiences. Sky + Air contains a mix of pop, R&B and ambient chill landscapes. It has a sense of yearning and sadness but always a glimmer of hope and fun. Teresa's draws inspiration from a lot of the new music her and her friends listen to Lana Del Ray, Sam Smith, Best Coast, Lily Wood and the Prick have been big influences, but her music most certainly has a unique feel all of its own.

Teresa has performed in both Canada and the U.S. and she lives in Toronto, Canada. Teresa is now accompanied by Electro on the mix, creating a whole new spin on her sound.

Teresa Hart's music is available on itunes.

The sweetly melodic 'Hypnotize' gets things off to a fine start, with Hart working the languid seductive end of her range. The jangly guitars and echo chamber vocals give 'California' a monster mash dance party with a sweet hook, while on 'Make Me Wanna Party' the band unleashes a solid rock'n'roll anthem.

'Spectacle' is a sultry slow burning highlight, driven by a pumping bass line with Hart going from smoky bottom end to cat in heat yowl. There's no justice if this doesn't become a strip club hit.

Any who want to know what kind of guitar playing once moved certain anonymous individuals to spray-paint the words 'Clapton is God' on the walls of London subways in the 1960s should hear the unsurpassable Teresa Hart. That is the otherworldly feel you can get from seeing such adeptness in action.
